

Key Facts

The four seasons of the year are called Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter.

Our five senses are sight, touch, smell, taste and hearing.

We use our eyes to see, our hands to touch, our noses to smell, our tongues to taste and our ears to hear.

Our school is in Hanham.

Hanham is a suburb of the city of Bristol, where we live.

Key Vocabulary

Landmarks	A feature of a town that is easily recognised.
Map	A diagram of an area of land.
Community	A group of people living in the same place.
Seasons	Regular changes to the weather that happen every year.
Internet	An online system connecting computers across the world.
Online	Connected to the Internet.
Senses	The five ways we experience the world.
Past	An event that has already happened.
Present	An event that is happening now.
Future	An event that has not happened yet.
Chronological	Arranged in time order.